

Novia deploys Dunstan Thomas 'Imago Front Office' for pensions & investment illustrations

Pensions and Administration solutions provider Dunstan Thomas, has secured an important new contract to enable pensions and investment illustrations for Novia Financial plc on its Novia wrap platform, due to launch later this year. Under the terms of the contract Dunstan Thomas 'Imago Front Office' will be integrated into InfoComp's Composer wrap technology platform and enable completion of illustrations for SIPP's, ISAs and General Investment Accounts on Novia's new wrap platform.

Chris Read, chairman, Dunstan Thomas explains:

"We are very pleased that such an important new open architecture-style wrap platform as Novia should choose 'Imago Front Office' for their illustrations service and to support such an impressive and functionally-rich offering."

Richard Denning, director of operations at Novia said: "Dunstan Thomas has a significant track record in the field of providing excellent data and process accessibility and the ability to ensure the technology is always in sync with any given changes in the adviser business model. The emphasis and importance we place on transparency and first class service makes Dunstan Thomas a perfect business partner for Novia in the field of adviser illustrations.

Denning continued: "We're pleased to have Dunstan Thomas as the provider of our illustrations service providing the perfect link to InfoComp's Composer front end and back office solution, "

Dunstan Thomas offers a comprehensive family of pensions administration software modules under its Imago product brand which together provide all the necessary functionality designed to enable pension policy holders to make better informed choices about their long-term investments, while enabling wrap platform providers, product providers and administrators to lay out this information in a transparent, concise and compliant way in order to meet the needs of all relevant parties.

Novia, due to launch to market by the end of the year, will offer advisers a comprehensive and independent wrap solution backed by a transparent charging structure. It will provide a full suite of product wrappers, access to around 1000 funds, supported with a first class service proposition. Novia recently announced the completion of its management team with the appointment of Paul Boston as Director of Sales.
